

READY FOR THE FIGHT TONIGHT

Jeffries and Ruhlin Meet in Mechanics' Pavilion at 'Frisco.

BATTLE OF GIANTS

Both Men in Pink of Condition, and a Long Set-to Is Looked For.

BIG CROWD EXPECTED

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—All the minor details for tonight's battle between Jeffries and Ruhlin were arranged this morning and everything is now in readiness for the contest. If the program for tonight is followed the men will step into the ring at 9:30 o'clock. Bob Ruhlin and Jeffries did a little work in the gymnasium this morning to limber up.

Jeffries Heart Normal.

A report from the physician on the condition of the fighters was filed with the police last night. It says they found Jeffries' heart normal after hours of violent exercise, showing that his training had not injured it. Ruhlin's heart was reported perfectly sound and beating at the rate of forty-two per minute. This they consider remarkable.

The lights over the ring and kintoscope machine were tested and found to be in good working order. The fighters in a statement issued today express confidence and each says defeat will not be due to imperfect physical condition. Jeffries is still favorite at ten to four in the betting.

Ready For the Fight.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 15.—Just before the battle tonight everything looks like Jeffries. He is the warmest favorite who ever went into the ring. There is absolutely nothing to it. As I write, I hear offers of two and a half to one, and this is the wisest money that was ever coined. I have talked to the men who have been with him for years and who know every snarl that pulsates in his bulky frame, and they say he cannot be beaten.

Riff-raff of the World.

Perhaps no fight for a championship ever brought together such a motley gang as infests San Francisco today. There are judges, and senators, pickpockets and courtesans, the best and the worst, the broken riff-raff of the world and the pick of the soft handed. There are men out here you have read of for years, and they are haunting the habits of the town with a zeal that should be applied to a better theme. It is the most prosperous week San Francisco has known since the gold days.

I do not know exactly what to predict about the time this battle will last. Jeffries is not a bear, but a tiger. He will win but he will be cautious. He and his following give it out that he is going in to mix it, but he cannot ever force himself to a mixing match any more than a cat can kill a mouse without first playing with it. Take my word for it. Ruhlin will go four rounds or better. Still, he does not stand a show in my opinion, and the end may come at any stage of the game.

Not Much Gambling.

There is no gambling to speak of on this fight, and perhaps $100,000 will cover the entire amount wagered in this city. As usual in events of this kind, there are men willing to take the short end of a losing proposition simply because they have a shade the best of it. It is the odds that attract them. Both men are in the finest physical condition that is possible.

Ruhlin throbs under every nerve that pulsates in his body, and Jeffries seems to have every breast hair on end. His massive chest actually plunges with is good health. It will be a battle of giants but the biggest giant will win. He throbs with life and spirit, and there is no man, living or dead, who can hurt him enough to make him quit. I am writing this from a personal, intimate knowledge of the biggest and burliest man who ever clinched a rivet to a plate of steel.

Jim's Terrible Punch.

With a blow of his fist while training Jeffries burst a punching bag. It was done with one of his left swings which won for the boxer maker the glory to the world's championship.

"When I fought Fitzsimmons," said Jeffries, "I weighed 207 pounds. I was as fast as chain lightning and felt as if I could fight all night. Now that I have reached within a few pounds of that weight I know and feel satisfied that I am in the best possible condition."

Ruhlin in Good Shape.

"You can say for me that I am in the best possible physical shape," said Ruhlin. "I am going into this fight with all of the confidence in the world. I firmly believe I will win, and if I do it will be because Jeffries is a better man. I am in shape to fight his battle of my life, and that I will attempt to do when I face the champion."

Ruhlin is said to have a new and effective blow which he will attempt to use during the contest.

Tom Sharkey has been heard from in answer to a telegram sent him by Manager Kennedy of the Twentieth Century Athletic club, offering him a fight with the winner of tomorrow's battle. He agrees to meet the winner on December 20. Sharkey will start for this city within a few days.

WISCONSIN MAN ENDS HIS LIFE

James Thomson of Amherst, Drowns Himself, and Sister, Seeing Act, Tries to Follow.

Racine, Wis., Nov. 15.—James Thomson, a real estate man of Amherst, Wis., committed suicide this morning by jumping into the Fox river at Rochester. His sister, Mrs. William Sharp, with whom he had been visiting, saw he act, and became so crazed at the sight that she attempted to throw herself into the stream, but was prevented by several farmers who ran to the scene. Thomson's body was recovered.

HEAVIEST SHOCK AT BEAVER CITY

Very Severe Earthquake Badly Damaged Mormon Property in the State of Utah.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 15.—A dispatch received today from the more remote sections of southern and southwestern Utah show that last night's earthquake shock was very heavy and in some localities considerable damage was done. The shock was apparently the heaviest at Beaver City, where the Mormon meeting house, the court house and the Beaver academy, were badly damaged.

He confessed shortly before going to the gallows and met death bravely. He completed the singing of "I am going home to die no more" just before the trap was sprung.

RUSSIA IS FOUND BACK OF FRANCE

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—It is learned that the sultan's sudden backdown in his attitude toward the French demands was followed by a call by the Russian ambassador who broadly hinted to the sultan that only the instant compliance on the part of the sultan would prevent the French from entering the Dardanelles. From this visit the sultan understood that Russia was back of France.

STONE ABDUCTORS ARE LOCATED; AMERICAN MISSIONARY IS WELL

Early Release Confidently Expected by the Officials--Hiding Place of Brigands is on Bulgarian Soil and Believed to Be Near Sofia.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary is not only alive and well, but the brigands' offer the release of Miss Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilka.

Dickinson also sent information about the chances of securing the freedom of the two women, which is of such an encouraging character that the prospects that they will be soon restored to their friends appear to be excellent.

The news that Miss Stone is alive was all the more gratifying on account of the report that came from Europe yesterday that she had been murdered by her captors. While all danger of her life cannot be regarded as having disappeared until she has left the custody of her captors, Dickinson's advice that the place of her captivity has been located lead to the conclusion that the brigands would not dare to kill her and thus invite relentless pursuit, with death as the certain result of capture.

The fear that the brigands would resort to active pursuit by killing Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka has prevented

ATTEMPT AT MURDER AND SUICIDE; ROCKTON MAN SHOTS HIS WIFE

Wm. Hamilton, a Widower, Married Addie Johnson After a Three Days' Acquaintance--They Parted After a Month, and Shooting is Result.

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 15.—(Special)—The village of Rockton is in an intense state of excitement today owing to an attempt at murder and suicide last night.

Wm. Hamilton, an employee of the Berlin works at Beloit, shot his wife twice in the head and himself twice in the side and neither is expected to live.

Hamilton was a widower with several children. About two months ago he met Addie Johnson of Durand, Ill., and after a three days' acquaintance the two were married and lived together at Rockton until one month ago when they separated because they could not agree. The wife lived with

SNOW STORMS IN THE EAST AND WEST

Syracuse, N. Y., Has a Ten-Inch Fall—Blizzard Raging in the Lake Superior Region.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 15.—The snow-storm throughout Central New York continues today with unabated severity. Country roads are in many cases blocked and huge drifts are piling along the fences. Streams are rising and several places report threatened floods. In Syracuse sleighs are running even in the downtown streets. Trolley service is demoralized, but the steam railways are making their time. About ten inches of snow has fallen. The mercury is about the freezing point.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15.—Reports from northern Wisconsin and Michigan indicate that a blizzard is raging. At Nequamee the snow was drifting and the ore piles were freezing rapidly, and at Marquette, Ashland and Ishpeming the same conditions were reported.

EDWARD WILL DIE IN TWO YEARS

King of England Cannot Live Over That Time—Will Not Give Up His Cigars.

London, Nov. 15.—King Edward's life is not worth more than two years at the very most. That is the opinion of the best physicians in the United Kingdom, and it may be set down as truth, on authority, despite insipid official bulletins to the contrary.

At the same time, it can be affirmed on equally unimpeachable grounds that his majesty's malady is not cancer of the throat. It is in the under part of the tongue, which is even more dangerous, and which, according to the doctors, must reach a fatal termination in two years.

HANCOCK AGROUND NEAR NAGASAKI

London, Nov. 15.—A Nagasaki dispatch says the United States Transport Hancock is ashore on the south side of the strait of Spionke. The bottom where the Hancock is aground is sandy. A German gunboat is rendering assistance.

Sir Andrew Carnegie.

London, Nov. 15.—Several morning papers report that Rosebury in his Edinburgh speech last night referred to Carnegie as "Sir Andrew Carnegie."

ADVOCATES FOR A NEW STATE MEET

Three Hundred Delegates at Muskogee Plan Union of Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

Muskogee, I. T., Nov. 15.—Nearly 500 delegates met here in convention today and took the first active step to bring the question of single statehood for Oklahoma and Indian Territory before the coming congress.

The delegates were equally divided between the two territories. Colonel Roy Hoffman of Chandler delivered a strong argument in favor of single statehood. He referred to the assertion by the opponents of single statehood that the movement in that direction was a political move made by the democrats. This he denied declaring that the leading republican paper in Oklahoma had favored the movement in forcible editorials.

BOTH HAD EATEN YELLOW APPLES

Police Are Hard on the Trail of the Women Stranglers at Evansville, Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 15.—The authorities seem as far from finding the stranglers of Mrs. Georgia Ralley and Miss Lena Renner as ever.

The theory that one man committed both crimes is not taking deep root with the police, because nothing has developed to bear this out beyond the similarity of the two murders and the fact that the analysis of the stomachs of the two women showed that each had eaten yellow-skinned apples.

Coroner Walker, however, declares one man killed both women. While Miss Renner's stomach showed the presence of morphine, enough to make her drowsy and an easy victim, there was nothing out of the ordinary with Mrs. Ralley's stomach.

MONROE ARMORY NEARLY COMPLETE

Dedicatory Services Will Consist of a Grand Military Ball About Holiday Time.

Monroe, Wis., Nov. 15.—It is now expected that the new Co. H. armory in this city will be ready by holiday time. The building is nearly completed. The dedicatory ceremony will consist of a grand military ball, and if possible Claude's First Regiment, Band of Milwaukee will be engaged for the occasion. The affair will be one of the greatest social events ever given in Monroe. The building is 110 by 60 feet in dimensions, while the dance hall and the drill room is 88 by 57 feet, without post or pillar. There will be a ladies' retiring room, gentlemen's smoking room, officers' room and other conveniences.

ARE SUBJECT TO INTERNAL REVENUE

Decision at Washington Today Holding That the Philippines Are Domestic Territory.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes today reversed a former ruling made by himself and held that whiskey, beer and tobacco withdrawn for consumption in the Philippines shall be subject to an internal revenue tax, thus holding that the Philippines for internal revenue purposes are domestic territory. The contention of the government thus far having been in the matter of customs the duties in the Philippines were foreign territory.

Miss Vera Nolan is reported as resting easy this morning and is considerably better. Her wounds were dressed again today and are doing nicely.

CROWD WILL GO TO MADISON GAME; EXPECT 15,000 TO 18,000 VISITORS

Schreiber Thrown Out of the Game Weakens the Badger Line—Interest in Contest at Fever Heat in Capital City—Minnesota Strong.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 15.—That Madison will be the Mecca of the football enthusiasts of the state tomorrow there is not the slightest room for doubt, as the railroad offices have been besieged for information relative to the special trains which will be run to Madison. A conservative estimate places the number who will go from Milwaukee at 1,000, and every city in Wisconsin will be represented by delegations of rooters for the Cardinal eleven. It is believed that the attendance at the great game will approximate 15,000 to 18,000 people, as excursions will also be run from Chicago and intermediate Illinois towns.

Interest in the game was at a fever heat today, the discussion of the coming contest supplying a never failing topic of conversation. Considerable Wisconsin money was supplied wherever Minnesota men put in an appearance, and odds of 100 to 80 were quickly absorbed by the followers of the Badgers.

Earl S. Schreiber of Madison, right guard on the Wisconsin football team, baseball player, and all-around athlete, was disqualified from a future

FIRE TERRIFIES CHICAGO GIRLS

Three Hundred in a Wild Panic While Firemen Face Death.

BIG FACTORY BLAZE

Employees of a Great Box Factory Make Mad Rush for Stairs.

TOTAL DAMAGE $60,000

Chicago, Nov. 15.—With a squad of firemen hanging with blistering hands to a hot fire escape while they waited for water and with 300 girl employees struggling in a panic to escape from a building threatened with fire there was plenty of excitement as the building at 254 Madison street was partly burned out in the evening. The damaged structure is between the buildings occupied by Lyon Bros. and Hollister Bros. At the rear is the Schultz Bros. box factory. In the building 300 girls were working when the fire was discovered shortly before 8 o'clock p. m. The flames burst out of the windows on three different floors almost simultaneously and shot across the alley toward the box factory. A panic followed. With cries of fear the girls ran for the stairs, which were soon filled with a struggling line of girls fighting their way down. Some crawled out of the fire escapes and thus to the ground.

Fighting Girls Carried Out.

Before all the employees had reached the street some of the girls had fainted and had to be carried out. It was an excited and frightened crowd of girls which reached the street. While the factory girls were making their hurried exit a squad of firemen were braving death on the fire escapes to the box factory building. The first lead of hose had been carried up the fire escape to reach the rear of the burning building. Then the flames came bursting through the windows, shot across the alley, and almost touched the walls against which the firemen were crouching. The wooden ladder caught fire and burned away under the men. Two firemen who had been mounting it dropped to the ground. The men above seemed fairly caught in the fire. There was a great cry set up: "Water! Water!" yelled the men up on the fire escape. "For mercy's sake, water!" At length the stream was turned on and the men saved.

Estimate of the losses.

The occupants of the burned building and their estimated losses are:

Harry L. Weisbaum, first floor, cutlery	$ 7,000
S. & I. Goldberg, second floor, tailors	7,000
Illinois Suspender company, third floor	8,000
Kalamazoo Corset company, fourth floor	10,000
American Electric company, fifth floor, electrical supplies ..	5,000
Buehl Bros., manufacturers of wax figures, sixth floor	8,000
On building	15,000
Total	$60,000

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 15.—The vestry of St. John's Protestant Episcopal church at Sharon, Pa., last night voted a call to the Rev. Frank J. Mallett of Beloit, Wis., asking him to take charge of his parish.

MILWAUKEE ROAD IN "N. P." DEAL; STRONG COMBINE BOARD NAMED

J. J. Hill of the Great Northern, to Be Made President of the $400,000,000 Northern Security Company--Hill Interests Are in Control.

New York, Nov. 5.—The shareholders of the $400,000,000 Northern Security company which was chartered in New Jersey last Wednesday for the purpose of holding the capital stocks of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern railroad companies, met in this city yesterday afternoon and elected a board of directors.

It is stated that James J. Hill will be the president. Five members of the board, the Messrs. Hill, Kennedy, Clough, Nichols and Terhune, are either directors or officers of the Great Northern railway system, and Colonel Daniel S. Lament is a close friend of Mr. Hill.

The Union Pacific interests are represented in the new board by E. H. Harriman, Jacob H. Schiff, and James Stillman, and the Morgan interests by George F. Baker, Robert Bacon and George Perkins.

The preponderance of membership

In Northern securities directorate was conceded to Mr. Hill because the Great Northern stock holding interest in the new company will be much larger than that of the Northern Pacific.

All persons chiefly concerned declare, however, that the purpose of this big corporation is unity of interest and not division of interest.

In financial circles the statement was made with positiveness that the St. Paul would be taken over by the new company and also the Union Pacific. Arguing from this, it was theorized that in time the Great Western, the Northwestern, the Oregon Short Line and the Oregon railroad and Navigation company would join the r. l. l., thus welding the greater portion of the West, Northwest and a smaller proportion of the Southwest territory into one harmonious family.

REAL ESTATE IN COUNTY IS BOOMING

Beloit Leads the List of Transfers During the Month of October—Sales in Detail.

Sixty-six parcels of land of the value of nearly one hundred thousand dollars changed hands in Rock county between October 2nd and October 19th, according to the list of deeds filed for record in the register of deeds' office during that time.

According to the report, Beloit shows the most activity in the real estate market. During this period twenty-four transfers were recorded from Beloit as against eleven in Janesville. The balance of the transfers are for farming lands or are distributed among the other cities and villages of the county. The numerous transfers indicate that the county is prosperous and that the residents are looking for chances to invest their money in good farming lands or desirable city property. While there were no extremely large sales, there were a number that ran well up into the thousands. The following is a list of the transfers:

RUSH FOR MADISON ON TOMORROW

Preparations are being made by a large number of people from this city to attend the Wisconsin-Minnesota football game at Madison tomorrow. It is estimated that from two to four hundred people from here will take advantage of the low rates given by both railroads for the round trip.

The Northwestern special under the auspices of the Imperial band has been abandoned, but the rate will be good on all trains up to 2:30 p. m. The St. Paul special will leave here at 9:45 and will reach Madison shortly after 11. It will leave on the return trip at 5:30 o'clock, but will be held in any event until the completion of the game and will be side tracked at the entrance to the grounds. Any old kind of a seat is now worth $2 and will be worth more before the game is called. Those who succeeded in getting seats in advance are very fortunate.

SIPPED PLEASURE FROM SOCIAL CUP

Five O'clock Tea Given by Mrs. A. M. Doty and Her Daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Fifield.

Happy indeed were the one hundred ladies who sipped pleasure from the cup of social life proffered last evening by Mrs. Abigail M. Doty and her daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Fifield to their friends. Through the medium of a five o'clock tea, given at their home, 201 Jackson street, Mesdames Doty and Fifield entertained royally, giving rare pleasure to those who were privileged to be their guests.

The spacious and brilliantly lighted rooms were handsomely decorated with chrysanthemums and carnations. The chrysanthemums were unusually fine being immense in size and exquisite in coloring. Two immense bunches of the graceful long-stemmed blossoms in white and a peculiar shade of pink formed the decorations in the parlors while less imposing but no less beautiful carnations beautified the other rooms.

The first tokens of hospitality were extended by Mrs. Fifield's little daughters, Miss Eloise presiding gracefully at the door and Misses Alta and Frances being stationed at the top of the stairs where they prettily directed the guests to the dressing rooms. In the parlors the hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Charles Atwood and the cordiality of their welcome assured the guests that an unusually pleasant evening was in store.

The supper which was prettily served at small tables, was especially dainty and appetizing. The introduction of some new results of culinary skill giving an individual charm to the menu. Mrs. Doty was seated with her guests and Mrs. Fifield was assisted in serving by Mesdames W. B. Conrad, C. S. Putnam, E. P. Doty and Mary Doty and the Misses Kate Fifield, Mary Barker, Abbie Atwood and Mary Atwood.

After the supper was cleared away cards were brought out for six-handed euchre but the guests were having such a happy time visiting in little groups that it was some time before they could be induced to return to the tables. In issuing their invitations for their three parties the hostesses followed no age rule but selected their guests for each evening by chance and the result was that old young and middle-aged ladies mingled together last evening in one congenial company. Friends who had not seen each other for some time found pleasure in a comfortable chat and many were reluctant to leave this general sociability even for the fascinating charm of the card tables. Even when the playing began a few people preferred to spend the evening in informal sociability.

The Indian den, a room filled with Indian curios collected by Mr. and Mrs. Fifield, while on their western trip this past summer, was a favorite retreat and much interest was taken by the ladies in the Indian blankets which formed the draperies and rugs, as well as in the Indian ornaments and samples of their handiwork.

If the guests seemed reluctant to begin the card playing there was no lack of interest in the games when once commenced. Progressive six-handed euchre was the game played and some high records were made. Mrs. E. P. Doty won the first prize, a handsome gilt candlestick, and a dainty vase was the consolation prize for which Miss Catherine Fifield, the winner, was forced to cut with Miss Little Whitton.

Mesdames Doty and Fifield will give two more parties of similar nature, entertaining about one hundred ladies tomorrow evening and the same number on next Tuesday evening.

BOWLING SEASON IS WELL BEGUN

The Y. M. C. A. Alleys Are Kept Busy Day and Night—Conditions for Playing the Game.

The bowling season, which is supposed to start with the first intimation of cold weather, is now well begun and although the rush has not yet started at the public alleys, the members of the Y. M. C. A. keep the alleys at the association building pretty busy. Only members are permitted to bowl and those members who only pay the regular membership fee in the association are required to pay by the game for the privilege of bowling, six tickets being sold for 25 cents. Members who subscribe $15 or more a year are entitled to all the privileges of the association, including bowling, gymnasium privileges, baths and the Y. M. C. A. lecture course without extra charge. There are about fifty members who are entitled to free bowling by paying from $15 to $25 a year membership fee.

Naturally those who have paid in advance for the bowling privilege are the most frequent patrons of the alleys and some of these members bowl as high as eleven games at a time if it happens that no one else is waiting for a chance but there are very few hours in the day when men are free from business that this is true. The rule of the association is that no member can bowl more than three games in succession if others are waiting. Sometimes as many as eight players are bowling at the same time.

No account is kept of the number of games played by members who are entitled to use the alleys at any time without charge but the record of tickets sold show that during the month of October 825 games were played by members who only pay the regular membership fee of $5 and pay by the game for the privilege of bowling. Since the alleys were started for the season, Sept. 25, over 1,500 games have been played by the $5 members. To obtain an estimate of the total number of games played these figures must be more than doubled.

Few people realize how much time and labor are spent in keeping the alleys in proper condition and how much expense is implied. The alleys must be kept scrupulously clean and this means at least two hours work each day. Assistant Secretary Roy Brown takes entire charge of the alleys and spends a large part of the morning rubbing them so that no dust or particles of grit remain on the polished surface. After closing time each Saturday night a polish is applied and allowed to dry over Sunday, being rubbed in on Monday morning.

The alleys at the Y. M. C. A. have proved so popular that those most interested in the association feel that there is great need for increasing the bowling facilities. If any arrangement is made for putting in more alleys they will be located so that entrance to them would be gained through the general entrance in the dormitory addition. In this case the new alleys would be opened to the ladies on certain nights of the week. This would certainly be a welcome innovation to ladies who feel the need of some form of athletic exercise and find none open to them after the golf season is over.

RATHBUN PLEADS NOT GUILTYInsurance Fraud Man Arraigned on Murder Charge.ACCUSED AS A POISONER.Identity is Fixed at Interesting Interview Held in an Indiana Jail—Arkansas
Visitors Call at the Jail in Jeffersonville, Ind.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 15.—Newell C. Rathbun, accused of killing Charles Goodman in a hotel here by poison, was in the afternoon positively identified by an officer and an acquaintance of the prisoner from Little Rock, where he had lived. Later Rathbun was arraigned before Mayor Rader on a charge of murder. He pleaded not guilty, and Mayor Rader held him over to the circuit court without bond. The prisoner had no lawyer. After being arraigned he was taken back to jail. The circuit court will convene in special term Monday and a grand jury will be impaneled to consider Rathbun's case.

Prisoner Knew His Visitors.
Rathbun was identified by Deputy Sheriff Al Chichester and E. J. Gloeckler. The meeting between the prisoner and the Arkansas visitors took place in Sheriff Rader's office.

"Hello, Rathbun," said Gloeckler. "Don't you know me?"

"Yes, you're Gloeckler," responded the prisoner.

"Did you give that man the dope?" asked Gloeckler.

"I am not guilty of the crime as charged."

"Did your wife know anything about your scheme?"

"She might have thought about it."

"Why didn't she identify the body as not being yours?"

"I can't tell. She's an excitable woman."

Calls Carrie Pryor an Enemy.
"What about the statement of Carrie Pryor that you wanted her to go into an insurance swindle with her?"

"She is an enemy of mine."

At the conclusion of the interview Rathbun signed a paper acknowledging his identity. He is reported to have said to a fellow prisoner: "The officers haven't a thing on which to convict. A man's intention does not mean that he may be convicted."

Corpse Held at Little Rock.
Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 15.—The corpse sent here as that of Newell C. Rathbun continues to repose in a vault at Oakland cemetery subject to the orders of Coroner J. M. Young, who says: "If Chichester and Gloeckler come before the grand jury here and make affidavits that the man in prison at Jeffersonville is Newell C. Rathbun I will surrender the body."

PARKHURST TO AID SALOONS.
New York Pastor Urges Sale of Beer on Sunday.

New York, Nov. 15.—Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst came out today unreservedly for Sunday opening of saloons during certain hours. An abstainer himself, he feels that other people have a right to their pleasure and recreation, even if they care to take it in a saloon. "Yes," said he, "I am for Sunday opening of the saloons. I should bar whisky and liquors, but let the people have beer and light wines. A man who wants whisky on Sunday can keep it at home. People cannot have draught beer on tap in their houses. I consider the Germans as a most valuable part of our population. They want their Sunday beer with their families. Once we can convince the Germans that we are for their ideas regarding Sunday beer and we will have them with us in our fight against indecency."

Marine Disaster Reported.
Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—Capt. Ferlan of the Australian steamship Etelka has brought to this port news of a probable marine disaster. Early on the morning of Nov. 8, when the Etelka was in latitude 41 north, longitude 59 west, Capt. Ferlan states that his attention was drawn to what he believes to have been a burning steamship. The craft was invisible, but the glare of the flames could be plainly seen. The course of the Etelka was changed, but before she could reach the burning vessel an explosion apparently occurred and the steamship was torn to pieces. The Etelka cruised about in the vicinity of where the fire occurred, but could find no trace of any of the crew, who it was thought might have taken to the small boats. Capt. Ferlan says just before the explosion the flames shot high in the air, which leads him to believe that the vessel was probably an oil-carrier.

J. H. Mapleson Dead.
Chicago, Nov. 15.—Colonel James Henry Mapleson, the famous operatic impresario, who might justly be termed the father of grand opera in Chicago, died in London of Bright's disease. Chicago owes its initial presentation of grand opera to Colonel Mapleson. This occurred more than 20 years ago, and since that time he has brought to this city many of the leading stars in the operatic firmament.

West Point, Miss., Nov. 15.—Miss Willie Du Bose, while unloading a pistol accidentally shot herself, the ball going through her heart. She died almost immediately. She was to have been married tonight and now lies shrouded in her wedding dress. She was a member of one of the wealthiest families in the state.

RESCUED ON GREAT LAKES.Vessels Wrecked and Life Savers Bring In Drowning Sailors.

Port Hope, Mich., Nov. 15.—In the northwest gale today the steamer Emerald became disabled by the breaking of her machinery when off this port. Deprived of her motive power the boat fell off into the trough of the sea and soon waterlogged. Signals of distress were hoisted, and the life-saving crew from the Point au Barques station put out to the rescue. The heavy sea running made the task of taking off the crew of nine men a desperate one, but all were safely lifted aboard the life-boat. All were benumbed by the freezing spray which dashed over the wreck and would have been unable to hold out much longer. The shipwrecked crew were taken to the life-saving station, where they are now being cared for. The Emerald was bound from Alpena to Detroit with a cargo of lumber at the time of the accident. No effort was made to save the steamer after the removal of the crew, and she is now drifting about Lake Huron, a dangerous derelict, her cargo of lumber and cedar in the hold keeping her afloat.

REPUBLICAN UNREST.

It is very truthfully said of a certain class of people that "they can't stand prosperity." Men, who through good fortune make money rapidly, either by speculation or more legitimate means, and who immediately go to work to spend their gains recklessly, belong to this class.

What is true of men is sometimes true of parties. If the republican party has a prominent weakness, it is of this order, and elements of this kind of weakness are cropping out at the present time.

The era of prosperity that the country is enjoying reflects credit upon a republican administration, and while democracy scoffs at the idea that a change of national administration had anything to do with improved conditions, it is nevertheless true, that lost confidence was restored on the day of election in 1896, and many industries that had been paralyzed for months took on new life and activity.

The panic of 1893, and the years of hard times that followed was brought about by natural causes. The surplus of the treasury had been exhausted, and bond issues, for running expenses were of regular occurrence.

Foreign competition, encouraged by free trade, flooded the home markets with goods that should have been produced in this country, and as a result, an army of American working men were idle, and thousands of factories closed their doors. Soup houses and appeals to help the worthy poor was the order of the day in all large cities, and hard times was recognized on every hand. The party in power was held responsible for these conditions, and turned out of office at the first opportunity. The defeat of democracy, but for the Bryan fallacy that promised a fifty-cent dollar as the panacea for all ills, would have been overwhelming, and all because the people would not longer trust the party with the reins of government.

The era of prosperity inaugurated in 1896 has steadily progressed until today it is without a parallel in the history of the country. Every industry has been so loaded with business that all sorts of schemes have been hatched in the industrial world, and money has been so plenty that enterprising promoters have found no trouble in placing stocks of every conceivable character. Many of these ventures have failed, as they were entitled to, but the losses were met by a class of men, whose money was made by speculation, and who are accustomed to meet losses without complaint.

In the meantime the nation has forged to the front, not only as the great producing, but as the great financial nation of the world.

The republican party, not content to let well enough alone, is now divided as to the future policy of the nation. One element favors an unchanged tariff, another a general reduction, and still another, reciprocity. The friends of the first claim, and with a good deal of reason, that tariff discussion and frequent changes, unsettle values and destroys confidence. That it would be better if an established tariff could be maintained for ten years.

The friends of the second, including such men as Congressman Babcock, argue that tariff laws encourage trusts, and that trusts are demoralizing to the nation, overlooking the fact that combinations are organized in the interests of both capital and labor, and that experience demonstrates every day that they reduce the cost of production.

The advocates of reciprocity believe that the tariff should be adjusted to meet changed conditions, at home and abroad, and on a basis of friendly exchange with individual nations as occasion may demand.

This is undoubtedly the thought that was uppermost in the mind of the late president when he made his Buffalo speech. It is a practical solution of the question, but time and unbiased statesmanship will be required to work it out.

The congress of European nations that is to meet in 1903 will attempt to unite on a policy that will result in retaliation, and it stands America in hand to forestall this action, by a proposition for friendly trade relations.

Better, however, to take the chance of an unchanged tariff, than to throw down the bars of protection, or by hasty action to adopt unwise measures that will result in injury to home industries.

The party cannot afford an internal fight. The question requires level headed common sense, and if it is properly handled, the adjournment of congress will find the party united, working for a policy that will promote the best interests of American capital and labor.

PROOF AT HAND.

The Milwaukee Free Press recently dared anyone to produce a scrap of proof that Gov. La Follette had threatened anyone who showed a disposition to disobey orders and vote for the Stevens primary election bill. The Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean immediately produced a letter written by Senator Rindard, in which that gentleman said that Gov. La Follette had tried to bulldoze him into voting for the bill. Senator Rindard's description of the meeting at midnight in the governor's office is quite dramatic. Few people have forgotten the governor's message containing his assault upon the members of the legislature who refused to be dictated to by him, and the protest from the senate which followed. These things show conclusively the true condition of affairs at Madison last winter. However, it is hardly necessary to produce proof. The history is plainly written, and it is no secret that Gov. La Follette made threats.—Baraboo Evening News.

The attitude of the governor, throughout the session, if not threatening, was at least antagonistic to members of the legislature who did not agree with him. The members of the senate were disposed to be perfectly fair with him, and were ready to meet him in conference, and discuss his pet scheme, the primary law, and if possible, agree on some measure, but they were held at arm's length, and given to understand by action, if not by words that advice and consultation was not desired, and would not be considered.

Reluctantly, they were compelled to take up opposition against him. When they replied to his message, it was in defense of self-respecting manhood, and the sentiment of their reply was endorsed by every unprejudiced mind in the state.

Mayor Rose resents the attacks of the Milwaukee clergymen and says that the city is not guilty of the demonstrations charged. To an outsider Milwaukee seems like a model town. The favorite beverage, while filling, is not intoxicating to the average German citizen, and a man who could get excited on Milwaukee beer would be dangerous to have around should he change his drinks to Waukegan water.

The Polytechnic school of Pittsburg, so richly endowed by Andrew Carnegie, promises to be the best school of its class in the country. It will be intensely practical and its graduates will be in demand in the industrial world the day that they are ready to work. Mr. Carnegie believes in a practical education. His great success is due largely to the fact that he was surrounded by a class of intelligent helpers, who were practical artisans.

White Eagle, the old Indian chief of the Ponca tribe, is about to make a pilgrimage from Oklahoma to Washington, to discuss with the president the question of table ethics. He claims that his ancestry is so ancient that he is entitled to courtesy on account of blue blood and unless invited to dine at the White House, trouble may be expected. The life of a president is not all sunshine.

The action of Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road in cutting the time between St. Paul and Chicago to ten hours will doubtless be met by competing lines. The Northwestern has the shortest route and can make the run in eight hours if compelled to. Now, that the agreement is broken, lively trains may be expected.

The end of internal strife is party suicide. It may not always mean death, but it never fails to leave unsightly scars. The republican party in the state is playing close to the danger line, with both eyes open. Somebody will be responsible, and about the only consolation in sight is the "I told you so," sort of comfort.

All the kicking in Madison is not done on the gridiron. The university boys are accused of turning the home city down on reserved seats for the game tomorrow and a general howl has resulted. There are people who couldn't kick a pigskin, forty feet, that can kick a grievance all over the state.

A Milwaukee justice has discovered a new plan for dealing with contempt cases. An insult to the court was resented the other day by taking the offending party out in the hall and chastising him, and then leading him back to the court room, and rendering a favorable verdict. That appears to be a case of justice, tempered with mercy.

Grant County Witness: Just now there is a good deal of discussion as to whether "slant" or "vertical" penmanship should be taught in the public schools of Milwaukee. What is needed more than anything else by the average penman is to be able to write so that other people can read, or even that he can read himself, after it gets "cold."

Senator Spooner may not be inclined to reconsider his expressed determination to withdraw from the United States senate at the end of his present term, but the republican party of this state, which has honored itself by honoring him, will attend to the reconsidering in due time.—Stoughton Hub.

PRESS COMMENT.

Appleton Post: The declination

by Cole Younger of a police captaincy is more creditable to that released bandit than the offering of the position to him was to Mayor Ames, an official to which the advocates of a primary election law "point with pride."

Superior Telegram: Reports come this morning that three men were killed yesterday in Wisconsin while hunting deer. That is a good start, and proves that Monday maintained the record. However, we may expect more and perhaps larger reports as the season progresses.

Rockford Republican: Governor La Follette is being assailed for accepting transportation favors from the railroads while declaiming against them. He probably believes in foraging off the enemy.

Appleton Crescent: True or false, one good sign is reported about the governor, that he has taken to memorizing the sermon on the Mount. Why not embody it in his next message, a farewell message, if you please, to the next legislature.

The Milwaukee Free Press is not winning friends with its presentation of the truth in regard to the President and petalwards. It will have to try its pit at something more effective than punny spelling.—Brookhead Independent.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: If there is any sin hiring a special train the whole party is culpable, and those who committed the error will in turn be held responsible by the party.

Personal Tidiness Among Women

So I left my chickens in care of a neighbor, who looked after them for the sake of the eggs, and lent my little Jersey cow Pet to an orphan asylum. The neighbor who cared for the chickens agreed to water the flowers. Dog or cat I have none. Then I went traveling. I started on my journey at a time of much confusion and going to and fro up and down the land of excursions. Quickly my penetrating eye observed that more than half the tourists were women. The first city in which I landed had a larger mouthful of the excursionists than it could swallow. It could not accommodate them; it just laid them around anyhow. I had my choice of rooming with others, which I especially detest, or of sitting up all night. So I bunked in with a lot of strangers—over twenty women of us in all—and made a night of it.

Not having much practical experience in the matter, my conviction has always been that women are always tidy, daintily clean and sweet and that men without them would be a mob of dirty folk. Well, since I have been on my travels that conviction is staggered. It got its first blow last summer when I was wont to frequent a swimming bath by the sea, and I saw women throw wads of their combings—brown, black, white and red—into the tank where the rest of us were swimming.

I am going to speak to women on a subject which the etiquette books have neglected—namely, the care of their hair; not hair upon their heads, but that which comes off. There was once a great statesman who declared that if he had his way he would make all women shave their heads and keep them shaved because of their slovenliness in the matter of loose hairs. I am not sure but he was right. At any rate, many persons agree with him, in their minds at least. It made this statesman quiver all over with disgust to get a woman's long hair upon him or to find one tightly hugging a piece of soap. Being a family man, the statesman was liable to encounter these happiness marring obstacles, small but awful. Women who are

LESSONS IN VANITY.

Small Girls Receive Their Teaching Early in Life.

"Children are no longer natural," declared my friend the old fashioned woman. "Even the tidiest of them are full of self consciousness. It manifests itself in their speech, in the way they trip along, in the very manner in which they adjust their curls or tweak their lashes. The small girls especially are miniature old women, and their one idea in life seems to be to eclipse each other as to frocks. It beats me to know how the little things get such ideas in their heads."

"That's rather easy," I answered. "Let me show you," and I led the way to a corner of the park frequented by nursemaids and their charges. Fortune favored me. We had not been seated more than five minutes before the following little comedy was enacted directly before our eyes: Two smartly dressed maids appeared from opposite directions, each leading a little girl aged between four and five. The mites were dressed in the extreme of fashion, duffy lace skirts, short silk coats with big collars and cuffs of fur, and great beplumed hats. Evidently the women knew each other, for they stopped to talk.

"Arrah, thim, and how is it wid yez, Norah?" the taller of the two exclaimed. "And would yez luk at the foina dress little Miss Ruth has on! It's her mother has the style! Oho, and this one'll be the great one, too, when she's grown and have all the fellers after her. Luk at the twinkle in thim eyes! Sure and that's a grand silk! It couldn't have cost no less than folve a yard. I'what's it lined wid darlint? Lemme see! Oho, the pretty pink satin! And would yez luk at the fither in her hat! My wurrd, 'tain't another child in this town has as handsome a one, barrin' Miss Maudie here. Turn around, Maudie, neshla, and let Katie see yer grand new bonnet!"

And the two mites preened and twirled themselves so that they might be admired while the two maids passed criticisms. Finally she whose costume had been declared the more costly of the two stuck her small chin in the air and with an expression which would have done credit to a veteran society leader disdainfully turned her back on her little rival.

The two servants chuckled with delight. "She's just lolkie her mamma fer all the wurrd!" they declared. "My friend turned to me. 'Oh, the pity of it!' she sighed."

MAUD ROBINSON.

What to Say About the Baby.

For the benefit of those who are at a loss to know just what to say on seeing a new baby for the first time and who naturally feel that they must say something we give the following list of expressions, any and all of which are commonly used, there being no patent or copyright in them.

Whether you shall offer to kiss the infant depends somewhat on its age and appearance and the extent to which you are willing to sacrifice yourself in order to please the baby's mamma. The baby itself doesn't care a button for your feelings or your kisses, but you are expected to say:

"What a pretty little thing!"

"Bright eyed little chap, isn't he?"

"Why, how large he is!"

"I don't think I ever saw so young a child look about so."

"How much does he weigh?"

"What lovely, silky hair!"

"Looks very like you."

"What a little rosebuddy of a mouth!"

"How very wise he seems!"

"I really believe the little thing understands every word we say!"

"Oh, what a splendid big boy he is!"

My Lady's Treasures.

The prettiest decoration for the hair at the present time seems to be pearls, strings of which are twisted neatly and artistically amid its coils. The effect is particularly pleasing when the wearer has dark hair and is possessed of a good complexion.

Though this form of decoration for evening dress is spoken of as a novelty, it is in reality a very old fashion, as may be easily proved by a glance at a book of beauty or an inspection of the portraits of our ancestors.

By the bye, the pearls need not be real. Indeed it would be far better that they should not be so, as contact with the hair would be likely to destroy their beauty.

IRISH LEADER'S DAUGHTER.

Sheela O'Donovan Rossa, Composer of Odd and Plaintive Melodies.

A recently published song entitled "My Heart For Your Heart," that bids fair to become very popular, is the work of Sheela O'Donovan Rossa, daughter of the man who has fought so long for Ireland's freedom and who at the age of eighty is still an active advocate in behalf of his country.

While the words of the song were written by her husband, J. J. McIntyre, she composed the melody, which has a sighing plaintiveness particularly adapted to a sentimental ditty. A good idea of the nature of the song can be obtained from the first verse and the chorus, which run:

My fortunes are not what I wish for your sake they might be;
My wealth consists of but a heart that beats alone for thee,
And when I ask you to be mine, as I will surely do,
This is the substance of the things that I will say to you:

My heart for your heart
Is all I can give;
My love for your love
As long as we live;
My smile for your smile
Until life be o'er;
These give me, sweetheart;
I ask nothing more.

Mrs. McIntyre's compositions are all unique in style and original in theme. As a rule, they possess a quality of weirdness which is bound to attract attention.

Besides being a talented composer, Mrs. McIntyre is a skillful musician. She was born not long after her father came to America as an Irish exile, having received a sentence of banishment for twenty-five years. Rossa's love for Ireland had brought him nothing but fame and misfortune, and his old feelings now seem to find a new vent in the musical writings of his daughter. When she does not drift into the plaintive minor key, she gets so close to it that the major has that remarkable sound which has made Irish music a national characteristic.

HUNTED RABBITS WITH A FERRETT

Constable Holsapple of Afton, Brings in Three Boys Caught in the Very Act.

Constable Holsapple, of Afton, created considerable excitement in the municipal court this morning when he made his appearance in the room with three young men walking in front of him, two of them handcuffed together in the lead and the third one close on their heels, for fear of the double barreled shot gun which the constable carried.

Judge Fifield and Clerk Tanberg at once sized the trio up as bad men, and visions of the Darien bank robbery or a railroad hold-up arose before them. They were very much relieved when the constable announced that the three young men were out hunting rabbits with a ferret near Afton yesterday when caught by him.

Judge Fifield told the constable that he would have to see the district attorney before anything could be done. The constable was in a quandary for a time as to what he should do with his prisoners, but was assured by the judge that they would stay in the court room until his return.

District Attorney Jackson discovered that Constable Holsapple had seen the young men in the woods bending over a rabbit hole. They had put a ferret in the hole and were waiting for the rabbit to run out. He at once put them under arrest and took them to Afton this morning bringing them to Janesville.

The young men gave their names as Fred Gaston, Al. Murray and Ed. Lippert. They claimed they were on their way to Beloit when arrested and were not hunting. Judge Fifield after considering the matter took their names and held the case over until the return of Deputy Game Warden Drafiel from the north for investigation. It is safe to say that the boys will be a little careful about what they do in the meantime.

FROM MILWAUKEE TO JANESVILLE

It Appears To Be Certain That the Proposed New Line Will Be Built.

It is an old saying that where there is so much smoke there must be some fire. So with so many railway projects in the air some of them are sure to go through. None appear more certain of being carried out than the proposed line from Milwaukee to Elkhorn and Janesville, upon which the surveyors have been working for the past three weeks or more. The promoters have been working at the matter quietly, without disclosing their plans, first, because too much publicity might trouble them in securing their right of way, etc., and second, because they do not depend upon arousing public interest to secure means to carry the project through.

It is now practically settled that the road will be built early next season from Milwaukee to Elkhorn. The route as laid out follows practically the old air line grade, established in 1848 and abandoned by the promoters. This will reduce the expense of grading to a minimum, and will give the road a good solid bed. Nearly everyone along the line is in favor of the road, and a large portion of the right of way has been secured. The farmers along the line are pleased with the prospect of having the advantage of an electric road, and are ready to help the project along.

The route of the extension of the Harvard and Geneva electric line from Walworth to Delavan Lake is by no means decided. The expense of the direct route is found to be too great, as a great deal of grading and filling will have to be done. Several different routes have been surveyed and the cost estimated, and the company is considering what will be feasible. There is no question, however, but that the road will be extended to Delavan lake before the opening of the next resort season.

TAKE MARRIAGE VOWS IN ROCKFORD

Miss Marian Scott and Andrew Fuller, well-known young people of this city, were happily married in Rockford yesterday afternoon at one o'clock and returned home last evening as Mr. and Mrs. Fuller. The announcement of the marriage will be a great surprise to the friends of the happy couple for though a few of Miss Scott's friends knew of her engagement, no one but the immediate members of her family knew of her purpose to be married yesterday.

Desiring a quiet wedding Mr. Fuller and his fiancée went to Rockford yesterday morning and the ceremony which made them man and wife was solemnized by Rev. B. S. Ely, Jr., pastor of the Presbyterian church, at his home. Both young people have a large circle of friends who will wish them much joy and prosperity.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and is a talented young lady of many accomplishments. She is a fine musician and is highly esteemed by all who know her. She was graduated from the Janesville High school last June, and having grown to womanhood in this city, enjoys the friendship of many people. The groom is a worthy young man who has resided here for many years and during that time has won the confidence and respect of all with whom he has been associated either in a business or social way. He is a trusted employee in E. B. Helmstreet's drug store. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will make their home with the bride's parents.

E. O. BROWN'S RIG HAS BEEN FOUND

Horse and Buggy Taken Last Night
Were Discovered in a Field
This Morning.

E. O. Brown's horse and buggy that were taken from in front of City Clerk Badger's home about 8:20 o'clock last evening were found this morning tied to the fence in the back part of a field at the rear of Mr. Badger's home.

Brown drove up to Mr. Badger's home last evening at about eight o'clock on a matter of business. He tied the horse to a post in front of the house and went inside. Twenty minutes later he came out after his rig and was surprised to find it gone. The tie strap had been broken or cut and it looked as if some one had taken the rig. A search was at once instituted for it without success and later the police were notified but could find no trace of the outfit.

This morning some people residing near Mr. Badger's home noticed a horse and buggy standing at the back of a field away from the road. They investigated the matter and found it to be the missing rig.

The theory of the police is that some one took the outfit for a drive and on their return late at night drove into the field and hitched it to the fence. Some of these parties that are borrowing rigs this way to take evening drives in will get caught sooner or later and will find out to their sorrow that it is not such a funny snap.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE ABEL BARLOW

Last Sad Tributes of Respect Paid to the Remains in This City—
Many Floral Offerings.

The remains of the late Abel Barlow were laid at rest in the Grove cemetery at Center yesterday afternoon at the close of impressive funeral services held at the home of his daughter in this city and at the farm home where the deceased gentleman had resided for so many years. At 11 o'clock yesterday morning sorrowing friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Spoon, 108 Terrace street, to pay the last sad tribute of respect. The sympathy of friends was also expressed in the large number of handsome floral offerings. The service at Mr. Spoon's home was very brief and was conducted by the Rev. Robert C. Denison.

At the conclusion of the service the funeral party drove overland to the farm home in the town of Plymouth seven miles west of the city. At one o'clock the funeral service was held and was largely attended, friends from all the surrounding country being present. Here again the beautiful message of consolation was voiced by Rev. Denison, after which the remains were taken to the cemetery for burial.

J. F. Spoon, Charles Atwood, J. M. Whitehead, Benjamin Blesdale, J. A. Deniston and Oscar F. Nowlan officiated as pall bearers in the city and this last service of friendship was performed in the country by Emory Dunbar, F. H. Demis, G. D. Silverthorn, Ira Fisher, George Gooch and Will Cory.

KINODROME IS A GOOD SHOW

A very interesting entertainment gave splendid satisfaction at the Myers Grand last evening and will be the attraction at the theater for tonight and tomorrow night. The kinodrome is by far the best picture machine ever seen in the city and a fair sized audience enjoyed a genuine treat in looking at some splendid pictures. Humorous and serious scenes were pictured and amusement and instruction were effectively combined. The funeral procession of President McKinley was shown in excellent manner and the Columbia-Shamrock yacht races and scenes from the Pan-American exposition were among the best things shown. The pictures were certainly well worth seeing and no one should neglect his opportunity. The Myers Grand should be filled to-night and tomorrow night.

Attention K. Ps.
All members are requested to be present this evening as the ritualistic work will be exemplified by a stereopticon lantern.

Milton, Nov. 15.—Griffithson enthusiasts had the opportunity of seeing a fine game Wednesday when the Milton Junction team lined up here against the college eleven. The latter were outclassed in the matter of weight by an average of at least fifteen pounds but speedily showed that football is not a game in which "main strength and awkwardness" wins. In spite of the two hundred pound center and guard, Platts hit the line for regular gains of from one to fifteen yards, while the backs and ends ran at will. In the first half Whitford fumbled on kick-off, the ball going to Milton Junction on Milton's ten yard line. Milton held for downs, Rodgers gained twenty yards, Platts ten yards and Whitford ran eighty yards with good interference for the first touchdown. Platts missed goal. The story of the first five minutes is the story of the game. Bliss was the next man to cross the line and was followed by Rodgers. Time called with ball on Junction's four yard line. Score—Milton, 15; Junction, 0. In the second half Platts scored from Junction's twenty-yard line and soon after Platts scored by a fine line play. Milton Junction got the ball on a fumble but lost immediately on downs. Whitford then ran sixty yards for the sixth touchdown, and Bliss kicked goal. On last kick-off Jackson came back thirty yards. Bliss got twenty, and Platts ran fifty more for the final touchdown, all done in two downs and one minute of play. Platts kicked goal. Final score—Milton, 37; Junction, 0. Referee, B. F. Johansen. C. H. STOLLER IN A REMINISCENT MOOD

Janesville Man Tells a Milwaukee Sentinel Reporter of Experiences Thirty Years Ago.

Yesterday was a great day for old settlers of Wisconsin about the hotels of Milwaukee says a Sentinel reporter. Mr. Angell has scarcely finished his story about coming here in 1842 when C. C. Clark of Milton, president of the state bank at that place, began to relate to another little group of loungers about the Kirby how he had hauled wheat into Milwaukee from Milton Junction by team fifty years ago. "There was but one bridge across the river then, as I remember," said Mr. Clark, "and that was down at Walker's Point. We hauled the grain to the old Kilbourn mill, where we found a market for it, and then stepped over night at the Lake House, which is still standing on the South Side."

"What was the highest price you have received for hogs this fall, Mr. Stoller?" inquired Mr. Clark of C. H. Stoller of Janesville.

"I was paid $6.75 early in the fall," replied the man from Janesville.

"Them same hogs would be selling for $5 now I reckon."

"The price has dropped off about $2."

Then Mr. Stoller's countenance assumed a far away expression, as he looked at the skylight, and also became reminiscent.

"Thirty years ago this fall I stopped at this hotel on my wedding trip. Golly what beautiful weather we were having at that time. I shall always remember it."

"No doubt of it," broke in Mr. Clark his eyes in a twinkle.

"Thirty years ago! How time flies. I have seven children now; five of them over 21 years of age. That fall I visited the State fair here, and there was a man here from Janesville who was engaged in the business of picking pockets. I knew him well and his folks live there now. During the evening I went into place and saw him playing cards. There was a policeman in the place, and turning to him, I said:

"That's M——, the man you fellows want for picking pockets."

"The man was arrested, found guilty and served a term in the state prison. That had a good effect. He is thoroughly reformed and is living an honest and industrious life in Chicago. There is no use of my telling his name. It would only make his people feel bad."

NOVEMBER SESSION OF COUNTY BOARD

Members Drew Their Mileage and Per Diem and Left for Home Well Satisfied.

The November session of the county board ended yesterday afternoon. The members drew their per diem and mileage and left for home well satisfied with the work accomplished during the session.

The question of fixing the salary of the county officers who are now paid by the fees they collect, came up for consideration. Supervisor Powers, asked that a committee be appointed to look into the matter and report at the January meeting. Supervisors Powers, Gettle and Bowles were appointed as such committee.

The annual report of the finance committee was adopted as was the report of the committee on constables and sheriffs. Chief Hogan's bill for expenses to Chicago in search of Marsden was cut and Sheriff Maltress for expenses in search for stolen horses was also cut for the reason that they had no warrant to serve. The register of deeds was ordered to make an annual report to the board of all abstracts furnished by him. The board then adjourned until January 15, 1902.

Killed by a Highwayman.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 15.—John W. Scott, one of Virginia's wealthiest and most eminent lawyers, was attacked by a highwayman at 1 o'clock a. m., receiving wounds from which he died at 9 o'clock in the evening without having regained consciousness. Mr. Scott had left the Commonwealth club on Franklin street half an hour after midnight, and half an hour later he was found unconscious and dying on the veranda of Major E. D. T. Myers' home, with his skull fractured by several blows from some blunt instrument. When found his watch and purse were gone, and this substantiates the theory of robbery. Scott was a son of the late Major Frederick R. Scott, and for many years the family has been one of the first in Virginia society, in banking and railroad circles.

Big Suit Against Cudahy.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 15.—The Union stockyards of this city has entered suit in the circuit court against John Cudahy, the millionaire Chicago packer, to recover $100,000 damages. The stock yards entered into a contract with Cudahy ten years ago, deeding him ground on which the yards were erected, providing that he should build a packing house of a certain capacity and operate it continuously. The suit is based on the allegation that he has not operated the packing house according to contract, but only in a limited way, so as to force the live stock to his house at Louisville. The purpose of the plaintiffs in entering the contract was to build up the Nashville stock market, and they claim it has been damaged.

Defrauded by His Double.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 15.—When James H. Manning of San Francisco, western manager for the Standard Pneumatic Tool Company of Chicago and a member of that firm, arrived at the St. Charles hotel he discovered that someone had preceded him and had claimed all his mail. The swindler who impersonated Manning cashed a check for $342 found in the letters with Payne & Joubert, the concern where Manning was to have inspected some machinery. He then borrowed $300 more of a Baronne street firm and was out of the town when Mr. Manning arrived.

It's a Serious Thing

For a woman to come to that period known as change of life. It is almost always a period of suffering, and the derangement of mind and body is some times so great that the family life is utterly marred by the unhappy wife and mother. At such a time every woman needs just the help that is given by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It works with Nature, soothes the nerves by nourishing them, and cures diseases of the delicate organs. In brief, it makes weak women strong; sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic.

"I have taken four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' for female weakness and change of life," writes Mrs. Lizzie A. Bowman, of New Matamoras, Washington Co., Ohio. "Before I began taking it I could not do anything. I had such pains in my head and in the back of my neck that I thought I would lose my mind. Now I can work every day and do not suffer. I recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all women suffering in the period of change of life. It is the best medicine I have ever found."

Every woman should send for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DENMARK MAY RETALIATE.

Chocolate Dispute Likely to Operate Against United States.
Copenhagen, Nov. 15.—The government of Denmark is considering the most effective method of retaliating against the United States should the diplomatic representations now being made in behalf of the Danish chocolate exporters fail. The exporters allege over-valuation of chocolate by the New York customs officials. The exporters deny that Denmark pays a bounty on chocolate and say that Copenhagen should be accorded the same treatment as America gives to the free ports. It is pointed out that Denmark will suffer little loss in the case of retaliatory duties, since her exports to the United States are only $750,000, against America's $20,000,000 exports to Denmark.

Gen. Henry L. Robinson Dead.
New York, Nov. 15.—Brig.-Gen. Henry L. Robinson, who retired from the army a number of years ago, and in recent years had been a customs inspector, is dead at his home in this city in his 90th year. He was born at Binghamton, N. Y. Soon after the civil war broke out he was appointed assistant quartermaster with rank of captain, and being a railroad man was assigned as the purchasing and disbursing officer of the military railroads. In 1866 he was mustered out. While he held the office he disbursed nearly $15,000,000. When President Lincoln was assassinated he had charge of the transportation of the body to Springfield, Ill. He was a brother of Gen. John C. Robinson, who was lieutenant governor under Gov. Dix.

Princess of India a Visitor.

New York, Nov. 15.—The Princess Sophie Bamba Dhuleep Singh arrived here from Europe. Her present stopping place is not known. On the way over she spoke of visits she intended to make at Newport. Beyond this the steamship authorities know nothing further of the movements of this princess of India, whose father, the maharajah of Lahore, was once owner of the famous Koh-i-noor diamond.

Her brother, Prince Albert Dhuleep Singh, has visited New York many times and has been entertained both here and in Newport. He set London society agog in 1898 by marrying Lady Anne Coventry. His marriage was the first on record of an Indian prince marrying into the British nobility.

Ocean Liner on Fresh Water.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 15.—The steel steamer Minnetonka, probably the largest vessel ever built on fresh water for ocean trade, has practically been completed at the yards of the American Shipbuilding company here. She is 443 feet over all, breadth of beam 43.7 feet, and has quadruple expansion engines. The Minnetonka will be cut in two and towed in halves to Newport News, where she will be welded together again. The cutting-in-two process is necessary because the canal locks between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario are only large enough to accommodate a boat 250 feet long.

Plans for Auto World Trip.

New York, Nov. 15.—Edward V. Wilber of Cincinnati is in New York to perfect the plans for an automobile trip around the world. He expects to leave Cincinnati early in the spring, and hopes to circle the globe with his machine in 300 days. His plan is to come direct to New York from Cincinnati, and take a steamer to a French port. He will cross France, Germany, and Russia, and, taking the course of the Trans-Siberian railroad, finally reach the Pacific ocean. After touring Japan he will cross the Pacific to California and thence back to Cincinnati.

Prayers in Police Court.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 15.—City hall offices and police headquarters were almost deserted when the Rev. Mr. Pogue of the Fifth Presbyterian church opened services in the police court room for the recovery of Detective Cal Crimm, who still hovers between life and death at the City Hospital. About 100 police in uniform and 300 others were present in the packed court room. Sherrard Denton of the Rescue Mission also spoke. Crimm was shot several weeks ago by the notorious crook, Foley, "The Goat," whom he was attempting to arrest.

Sweeping Injunction Issued.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 15.—Judge Evans of the federal court last night granted an injunction restraining the strikers at the Reinecke coal mines in Hopkins county from interfering with the employees or entering the company's premises. The injunction also prohibits the strikers from camping within gunshot distance of the mines or within that distance of non-union miners' houses, or assembling in the roads or near the roads leading to or from the mines.

Klondike Official Killed.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 15.—L. J. Girouard, government registrar in the Klondike, was shot and killed in Dawson, according to a brief dispatch from the northern city. A man named Lord, an Eldorado Creek miner, with whom Girouard had business dealings, is said to have fired the fatal shot. The men had a dispute regarding some mining property.

Ready for Habeas Corpus.

Washington, Nov. 15.—While the war department has not been advised of the reported step to secure the release of Aguinaldo from captivity through a writ of habeas corpus, they were prepared for a move in that direction.

Society of the Army of the Tennessee refused to authorize an inquiry into the conduct of General Wallace at Shiloh, as requested by him.

ENTHUSIASTIC CONVERTS

There are Thousands of Them Who Believe as This Woman Does.
Mrs. Ira Knowlton, of Butte, Montana, is a most enthusiastic convert to the virtues of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as a cure for obstinate stomach trouble. She says: "I had poor digestion nearly all my life. It now seems to me that for years I never knew what it was to be hungry, to have a good natural appetite.

"I was troubled with gas in stomach, causing pressure on the heart with palpitation and short breath. Nearly everything I ate soured on my stomach, sometimes I had cramps in the stomach which almost resembled spasms.

"Doctors told me I had catarrh of the stomach, but their medicines would not reach it and I would still be a sufferer had I not, in sheer desperation, decided to try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"I knew they were an advertised remedy and I didn't believe anything I read about them as I had no confidence in advertised remedies, but my sister living in Pittsburgh wrote me last spring telling me how Stuart's Tablets had cured her little daughters of indigestion and loss of flesh and appetite and I hesitated no longer.

"I bought a fifty cent box at my drug store and took two of the large tablets after each meal and found them delightful to take, being as pleasant to the taste as caramel candy. Whenever during the day or night I felt any pain or uneasiness in the stomach or about the heart I took one of the small tablets and in three weeks it seemed to me as if I had never known what stomach trouble was.

"I keep Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the house and every member of our family uses them occasionally after a hearty meal or when any of us have a pain or ache in the digestive organs."

Mr. E. H. Davis of Hampton, Va., says: "I doctored five years for dyspepsia, but in two months I got more benefit from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets than in five years of the doctors' treatment."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, bloating after meals, sympathetic heart trouble.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is not a cheap cathartic but an active digestive remedy containing the pepsin and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and they cure stomach troubles because they digest the food eaten, and give the weak, abused, over-worked stomach a chance to rest and recuperate.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold in every drug store in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

BURNED TO DEATH IN MINE.

Scenes Entombed by Terrible Fire and Heavy Explosion.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Five dead bodies have been taken from the Baby mine at Pocahontas, Va. Several other persons are unaccounted for and are believed to be dead, and twenty-five persons have been rescued more or less severely burned. All this is the result of a fire and terrible explosion in the mine. The list of the dead so far recovered follows: Louis Woolwine, John Bernhart, Will Montgomery, M. D. Kountz and John Urico. At 3 o'clock a. m. it was discovered that the Baby mine of the Pocahontas Coal Company at Pocahontas was on fire. An alarm was sent in and the fire company responded promptly. In a short time after the fire fighters had reached the mouth of the mine and were attempting to extinguish the flames, some of the firemen and others, having rushed inside of the mines to ascertain the extent of the trouble and to assist miners entombed therein, a terrific explosion occurred and many miners and their friends were more or less injured. It is supposed that the mine caught fire from a defective electric light wire.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by Dr. J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: Dr. J. C. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, Inc. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winklow's Sooty Straps has been used for children while teething. It soothes the child; softens the gums; allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by druggists throughout the whole world.

ALL READY FOR THE FIGHT.

Champion Jim Jeffries Will Defend His Title Tonight.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 15.—Jeffries has concluded his training for the big fight with Ruhlman which takes place this evening across the bay. There is no gainsaying that the big heavy-weight champion is in better form than ever before in his life. Jeffries arose at dawn. After a light breakfast he went out for a long walk and then went to his training quarters and began his finishing work at 10. He did no boxing, as it had been announced that he would, and spent most of the day in the Rellauer club gymnasium.

Ruhlman spent a quiet day. He obeyed the injunction of Billy Madden also lately to eschew hard work, and the only thing he did in the training line was to punch the bag, skip the rope and do other forms of light exercise. "Just to keep my hand in," as he expressed it. There were many visitors at Ruhlman's headquarters and all were impressed by the splendid appearance of the Akron boy and the agility he displayed while at his work. He has the ruddy appearance of a man in perfect fettle and the clearness of his eye is an indication of his fine condition. For a man who is going against the champion, Ruhlman's confidence is amazing. He declares he will win, and everything in his demeanor indicates that he speaks sincerely.

Girls Work 14 Hours For Day.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Three prominent Chicago clubwomen, acting under instructions from the State Federation of Women's Clubs, went out into the slums of the city this morning and learned for the first time how the poor eke out a miserable existence. The sights they saw in the Ghetto and Italian district filled them with dismay. Little children at work in the clothing and cigar sweat shops called forth their pity. Men and women were found who work for fourteen hours every day of their lives, trying to keep body and spirit together. Forty persons were found in one room 15x20, making cigars. Two Italian women were found sewing as if their lives depended on it. They said their wages for a full day's work was 23 cents each. Each day they sew two dozen pairs of men's pants.

Politics Will Not Count.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Roosevelt has announced that in making civil appointments in the insular possessions of the United States he would adhere to the principles of the civil service. He declared this policy to Clinton Rodgers Woodruff of Philadelphia, of the National Civil Service Reform League. Mr. Woodruff is chairman of the committee on dependencies, and called to ascertain what the president's policy would be. President Roosevelt told him in the most emphatic manner that absolutely no appointments in the insular possessions would be dictated or controlled by political considerations.
